Greetings

We warmly welcome you as a member of the Walddörfer Sportverein. We are pleased that you have chosen one of our diverse offerings and wish you lots of fun and success. All members have the same rights and obligations, which are set out in our articles of association and in special regulations (such as membership regulations, youth regulations). The members hold their departmental meetings once a year, for example, to elect the department heads and delegates.

Sports offerings

Athletics, fun, health and fitness in over 50 different sports and more than 600 training opportunities every week. Please note that sports groups may have a registration limit or a waiting list for a limited time if they are overcrowded. In order to ensure a smooth transition between the sports groups, the coaches are required to plan their training in such a way that cleaning up, dismantling equipment, etc. is completed when the next training session begins.

Contributions

Like any non-profit organization, Walddörfer SV works without profits. The contributions are determined by the delegates' meeting, the council, the board of directors and, in the case of individual sports, by the departmental meetings. The contributions consist of the basic contribution and the contributions for the specific offerings used by the member. In the case of training cancellations, e.g. due to the closure of the gymnasiums, sites and other training facilities, reconstruction, renovation work in the health and fitness studio (maximum 2 weeks per year), illness etc. there is no refund for contributions. Each entry and re-entry into the studio will incur a charge for the fitness analysis.

Opening hours

Please note that the opening hours for the member services and the health and fitness studio are set according to need on holidays.

Liability

According to § 27 of our articles of association, you renounce all claims arising from your membership against Walddörfer SV e.g. Related to accidents or other disadvantages, except in the event of wilful actions.

Excerpt from our articles of association (subject to change)

§ 10 Termination of membership

1. The membership expires by resignation, expulsion, death or expiration of the agreed membership period.
2. Resignation from the association can only be made at the end of the quarter by a written statement that must have been received by the association at least one month in advance.
4. A change of status from "active" to "supporting" may only take place at the end of the quarter. This must be applied for in writing to the association at least one month in advance. A status change in the opposite direction can be made at any time without observing a deadline. The same applies to switching from one department to another. However, contributions that have already been paid will not be refunded.

§ 11 Rights and obligations of the members

1. All members are entitled to participate in association life, at the general meeting, as well as at the meetings of the departments, the general offerings or the sponsoring members for which they pay contributions. Active members are also entitled to use the offerings for which they pay contributions.
2. After the age of 16, all members have the right to vote and, from the age of majority, a right to be elected. For exercise of the right to vote and the right to be elected, a six-month uninterrupted membership is required.
3. All members are required to behave in accordance with the articles of association and to promote the association and its goals. The contributions as well as any agreed allocations have to be paid.

Excerpt from our contribution regulations (subject to change without notice)

§ 5 Type of payment

1. The membership contribution is collected quarterly as part of the collection process and debited in advance at the beginning of each quarter. First-time contributions and membership fees can also be debited outside these periods at the beginning of each month.
3. Additional bank charges and administrative costs that are the responsibility of the member may be charged to the member.
